Reason for EOL

Parallel ATA interface for IDE modules in embedded applications is being replaced by Serial interfaces such as USB and Serial ATA.

Schedule

Last order date: May 30, 2007

Last shipment date: August 31, 2007

Product delivering is based on availability of relevant SLC NAND flash media.

Compatibility Issues

CompactFlash and SecureDigital cards have standard CF and SD interfaces, respectively. uDOC has a USB interface. Please contact your local SanDisk office regarding technical assistance with the replacement integration process.

Call to Action

Customers using iDOC are advised to migrate to one of the recommended replacements.
